would be regarded by him "as a rejection of the treaty."

THE LINE-UP.

Treated the majority's proposals. It is declared by the treaty's opponents that at least six Democrats, having as a maximum forty-five Democrats opposing them. In these circumstances the administration managers were told their only hope of defeating the programme was to vote against ratification after the reservations have been put into the ratification resolution. Some of the Democrats want to pursue that course and the general prediction tonight was that committee action would be fought off tomorrow to give the administration forces a day or two to their advantage.

In their conference today the Democrats leaders did not have before them the actual wording of the reservations as proposed by Senator McCumber. Most of the argument, therefore, was over those as presented by the North Dakota Senator.

FIDAL ON JOHNSON.
Senator McCumber's statement in opposing his reservations was the only reference on the floor of the Senate to the treaty during a day of non-assertion. It was said by his colleagues that he had shown for the first time disposition to feel that ratification of the treaty without reservations now was impossible.

President Wilson's illness was said to be the big element making for delay in the Senate. As McCumber executive, it will be for him to decide whether any reservations should be required for the ratification of the treaty, and his supporters do not want to accept anything he would consider in that category.

Those who argued against acceptance of the proposed reservations are said to have pointed out that in the McCumber draft the language relating to Article X is identical, except for the transposition of one phrase, with that quoted by the President in his Cheyenne address on September 23. The phrase transposed is "under the provisions of Article X." In the McCumber version the words occur after the opening sentence of the reservation, while in the President's version they occur at the end of the paragraph.

The text of Senator McCumber's reservations, which he presented for printing under the title of "negotiated" compromise reservations," follows:

WITHDRAWAL.

(1.) That the United States understands and so constructs Article I of the League of Nations as to make no withdrawal of the United States from the League of Nations, as provided in said article, the United States will be held to be bound to fulfill all its international obligations.

ARTICLE X.

(2.) The United States assumes no obligation to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any other country, or to interfere in controversies between nations, whether members of the league or not, under the provisions of Article X, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty for any purpose, unless in any particular case the Congress, which, under the Constitution, has the sole power to declare war or authorize the employment of the military and naval forces of the United States, shall, by act or joint resolution, so decide.

DOMESTIC QUESTIONS.

(3.) The United States reserves to itself exclusively the right to decide what questions are within its jurisdiction, and declares that all domestic and political questions, relating to its internal affairs, including immigration, coastwise traffic, the tariff, commerce and all other domestic questions, are solely within the jurisdiction of the United States, and are not under the treaty, submitted in any way, either to arbitration or to the consideration of the Council or the Assembly of the League of Nations or to the decision or recommendation of any other power.

MONROE DOCTRINE.

(4.) The United States does not propose to submit to arbitration or inquiry by the Assembly or Council any question which, in the judgment of the United States, depends upon or involves its long established policy commonly known as the Monroe Doctrine. Said doctrine is to be interpreted by the United States alone, and is hereby declared to be wholly outside the jurisdiction of the League of Nations and of any provision in said treaty contained.

SHANTUNG.

(5.) The United States refrains from entering into any agreement which in its part in reference to the matters contained in Articles CLVII, CLVIII, CLIX, CLX, and CLXI, and reserves full liberty of action in respect to any controversy which may arise in relation thereto.

(6.) Where neither principal country nor dominion is party to dispute, the United States reserves the right, upon the submission of any dispute to the Council or the Assembly, to object to any member and its self-governing dominions, in the aggregate more than one vote, and in case such objection is made the United States assumes no obligation to be bound by any election finding or decision in which such number and its said dominions, dependencies and possessions have in the aggregate cast more than one vote.

VOTES OF DOMINION.

(7.) Where principal country or dominion is party to the dispute: That the United States understands and constructs the words "dispute between members" in Article XV to mean that a dispute with a self-governing dominion, colony or dependency represented in the Assembly is a dispute with the dominant or principal member, represented therein, and that dispute with such dominant or principal member is a dispute with all its self-governing dominions, colonies or dependencies, and that the exclusion of the parties to the dispute proposed in the last paragraph of said article will cover not only the dominant or principal member, but also its dominions, colonies or dependencies.

Later Senator Jones, Republican of Washington, presented a reservation by which the United States would give notice that it intended to withdraw from the league at the end of two years unless within that time Shantung had been restored to China; the Irish situation solved in a way satisfactory to the Irish people; that must be an independent state, and peace time conscription abolished by all of the league members.

BURNQUEST'S VIEW.

(8.) Gov. Burnquist took a positive stand against unconditional ratification of the peace treaty and League of Nations covenant in an address late today at a home-coming celebration here to welcome the country's returned service men.

bodies and many conservative persons, who are in line with the old scheme of handling the problem of prostitution. She advocated the maintenance of a single standard of morality instead of the existing double standard, which permitted men to break the moral law without punishment or detriment to their social standing.

URGENT VICE CONTROL.

She appealed to the representatives to consider the urgent need of educating the public so that vice could be satisfactorily controlled throughout the country. She declared, now that women were franchised or being franchised, they are in a position of sufficient power to bring about a satisfactory moral condition in the communities throughout the nation.

"Women alone are able to bring a change in the moral conceptions of the general public," she concluded. "It is up to the women's organizations who are represented here to join in a co-operative fight to end these evils."

Following the general trend of Dr. Davis's lecture, the other speakers appealed to the women assembled to begin considering necessary measures and recommendations which will be taken up on the last days of the convention, October 23, 24 and 25.

Dr. Davis, who acted as chairman, said that it is the purpose of the convention to start work on the solution of the big problems that confront the women of America, and is expected that resolutions will be drawn up urging public officials to assist in the work.

PLAYS FALSE PRIDE.

Speaking on the legal aspect of illegitimacy, Dr. Anna M. Moulton, of the National Association of Women Lawyers, said that the stigma and false pride which has always interfered with the recognition by the father of the illegitimate child, neither mother nor child, is a disgrace to the nation.

MUST RAISE BIRTH RATE.

"In a country, the population of which is decreasing, it is important above all to favor the rate of birth by every means, to do away with all obstacles to the protection of all children indiscriminately. The protection of a child must no longer be held as a disgrace, and a disgraceful burden. The girl-mother must be lifted up and the prejudice which makes her an object of scorn must be a disgrace to the mother."

"Now, we must find in society for herself and for her child the support which is denied it. It is important to attain this result the law has assured the protection of the child by a bond of right between him and his parents when that is possible, but inasmuch as the mother when she is alone and without resources, and finally, in taking full responsibility in rearing the child when her parents fail to do so."

PENSION PLAN.

"In Paris alone in 1917," said Dr. Moulton, "the service of aid has received 79,688 demands from abandoned girl mothers or wives or widows. An allowance to the mother of from 10 to 20 francs per month is made payable in advance until the child is 3 years old. In that same year, out of 2330 children brought together by L'Assistance Publique, 346 were illegitimate."

Most interesting information regarding the care of deserted children was given by Dr. Moulton and M. P. Mouton, president of the Ligue Française pour l'Assistance Publique, and planning for the rearing of such children.

Laws regarding investigation as to fatherhood are too lax and cumbersome," Dr. Moulton concluded, "and ought to be broadened, even if they should disturb the peace of a few families whose affection and false honor are respected at the expense of the interest of the child. It is necessary to facilitate marriage and legitimation still more. Any measure would be good which will assure every child equal rights and an equal place in the world."

WHITE SLAVE TRADE.

Dr. Moreau, who was forced to ride across the Andes mountains on a mule to get to the sea-board as so to be present at the convention, described in detail the white slave trade in Argentina and Uruguay.

She pointed out that a civil law, which was used for the deportation of procurers, served also as a political instrument. She declared that the majority of the men engaged in the traffic were Russians. She added it was significant that the law used by the police to deport them without trial was frequently used under the cloak of ridding the country of the traffickers to get rid of "union labor agitators" in Argentina.

REDS FIGHT AT PETROGRAD GATE.

Soviet Forces are Making a Last Desperate Stand to Save the Capital from the Victorious Advance of the Army of the Northwest.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, Oct. 21.—A wireless communication from Bolshevik sources says that fighting is in progress six miles to the north of Krasnoye Selo, where the Reds are advancing. There is fierce fighting also along the Windau road. The abandonment of Kiev by the Bolsheviks is admitted, after a severe battle in which the Reds claim to have taken many prisoners.

Kronstadt has not been attacked and will not be by the naval forces now in the Baltic, and if the Bolsheviks evacuate the fortress before Petrograd falls it will be a great surprise, according to an Admiralty statement given to the Associated Press today.

The Admiralty, however, expects that Kronstadt will surrender soon after Petrograd is captured, probably to the British fleet in those waters. Messages received by the Admiralty from Admiral Cowan, the British commander in the Baltic, up to tonight do not mention the white-flag incident at Kronstadt.

The exception of official statements that the railroad to Moscow has been cut off at Gdov, on Lake Peipus, which constituted a most serious threat to the rear of Gen. Yudenitch, have been dispensed with.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 21.—I. N. 21.—The Bolshevik forces concentrated at Gdov, on Lake Peipus, which constituted a most serious threat to the rear of Gen. Yudenitch, have been dispensed with. The menace of an advance against the communications of the anti-Bolshevik forces now before Petrograd, which Gen. Yudenitch said he expected to take today. The request was forwarded to Washington.

Premier Llanosow's dispatch asserted that Gen. Yudenitch's troops on Saturday last were only five miles from Petrograd.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The request from Gen. Yudenitch that the United States undertake the shipment of supplies to Petrograd as soon as it has been captured has been received from American Minister Morris at Stockholm and probably will be acted on by the State Department. The text of the message was not made public.

WITHDRAWN FROM CAPITAL.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 21.—Communist Zinovief, the chief Bolshevik government representative in Petrograd, has withdrawn from that city, taking with him all men able to bear arms, according to reports to the official official department.

HELSINKI (Finland) Oct. 21.—The Bolsheviks have been driven from the city of Helsinki, according to reports to the official official department.

STEEL STRIKERS IN RIOT.

Stone Loyal Workers and Fire on Troops
Who Come to Quell Mob Violence.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—Rioting, which broke out in the Braddock Steel Mill district today, was renewed tonight when a crowd of about fifty strikers and their sympathizers clashed with several workmen who had just left the plants shortly before midnight Oct. 21. One man was shot and many others were injured.

Mounted State troopers rushed to the scene and rode into the mob, using clubs freely. When the troopers put in an appearance the crowd greeted them with a shower of stones, clubs and bottles and an unidentified man drew a revolver and fired five shots, one of which struck Joseph Dinno.

The troopers finally dispersed the mob and arrested two men who registered at the police station as Joseph O'wren and Von Vash, both of Braddock. The two prisoners, according to the police, sustained severe injuries in the fight.

In the rioting of today and tonight more than a score of workmen were injured, it is said, and they were rushed to the emergency hospital at the Edgar Thompson steel works.

Authorities of Braddock tonight announced that special police would be put on with the regular force immediately to assist State troops in patrolling in the strike zone.

The rioting tonight followed a day of trouble in which a number of men were injured when the police and mill guards met strikers and their sympathizers.

SURROUNDED.

The most serious fight occurred at Braddock where workmen in the Edgar Thompson plant of the Carnegie Steel Company were permitted to leave the mill for their lunch, the first time since the strike was declared.

When they attempted to return they were surrounded by a mob near the gate and fighting started. The situation soon passed beyond control of the town police and State policemen were summoned from Rankin, near by. They answered the call mounted and quickly cleared the streets although a number of persons were injured before quiet was restored. Fourteen men were arrested. No estimate of the injuries was made.

UNIONS LIKE SOLDIERS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Leaders in the steel strike with a "soldier's conduct" of Federal troops at Gary, Ind., that the government has been asked to send troops into the Pittsburgh district, John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the strikers' committee, said today. Mr. Fitzpatrick came here to discuss the strike with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and other members of the labor group in the national industrial conference.

Mr. Fitzpatrick said the troops at Gary had guaranteed the constitutional rights of free speech and assembly and thus had relieved the "tension" there. In this connection he denounced the "brutality" of the Pennsylvania State Constabulary.

Mr. Fitzpatrick charged that public agents of the Steel Corporation had "manufactured" the "red" propaganda food for the labor for the purpose of bringing suspicion on the strikers. He said that most of these dangerous documents "when translated were found to be nothing more than lies."

FRENCH AMNESTY TO RELIEVE NEWSPAPERS.

(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The general amnesty law passed by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies will afford relief not only to practically all soldier offenders against laws during the war, but will relieve from punishment newspaper publishers guilty of violating the censorship. Merchants sentenced for illicit speculation and civilians guilty of intelligence with the enemy are not included in the amnesty.

FRANCE WILL HELP TO FEED BAVARIANS.

(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PARIS, Oct. 21.—Gen. Fayolle, commanding the troops of occupation, has received the German officials in Spire, Bavaria, palatine, and informed them that the French high command would endeavor to improve the food supply of the palatine and maintain true and loyal relations between the population and the French troops.

In spite of victory, he said, France with her devastated provinces suffers still more than Germany, and if the German armies had not destroyed the coal mines in Northern France, the palatine would today have enough coal.

Keeping Fit

BY DR. SAMUEL HAMILTON.

It is because of the war that the perfect physical man has at once become the ideal of the world. You can make of yourself, even rather late in life, almost anything you like. You are not going to get fit in one day, one month, or perhaps, a year, unless you take enough outdoor exercise to keep the circulation going and practise the athlete's first principle — to keep the system clean. He does not give his body a chance to absorb poisons. He not only takes his cold shower, after exercise, but he knows a cleansing of the intestines is important, and he takes occasionally a good regulator and liver cleanser, such as a dose of castor oil, or, what is much better, a tiny pill made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Keep the kidneys in good order also. Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking "Anurio" (anti-uric-acid). This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headaches, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. Take heed, before too late! Get Anurio (anti-uric-acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package of "Anurio."

WEYLER SYSTEM FOR MEXICANS.

Carranza Decides to Adopt Reconcentrado Plan.

Villa Doubles Army; More Trouble is Expected.

Aliens from Below Border Coming in by Doves.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Because of the growth of the revolutionary movement in Mexico and the inability of the Carranzista military commanders to stop it, orders have been sent out from Mexico City to inaugurate in Chihuahua the reconcentrado system used by Weyler in Cuba. It was learned in advices from Mexico City today, which reported also the receipt by bitter protests from the northern part of the country. The original orders sent to Gen. Diages, military commander in Chihuahua, were kept secret from the Mexican public and the vigor of the protests forces the news to publication.

Gen. Diages, it is learned, has been ordered to direct the abandonment by the populations of all the small towns and villages of Chihuahua, Jimenez and Parral. The reason for this, it is explained, is that the inhabitants of all the small towns and villages of the range are pro-Villa and the government has been unable to prevent them from sending aid to the revolutionary leader and furnishing him with arms and munitions.

Following the protests sent to Mexico City against this order, which is termed by the people of Chihuahua as "barbarous," a delegation of citizens has gone to the capital to protest in person to President Carranza. It is pointed out by members of this delegation, according to reports reaching Washington, that if the reconcentrado order is carried out many peaceable citizens, farmers, small merchants and householders will be driven into the Villa ranks.

ANGEL DOUBLES FORCE.

Reports have reached Mexico City that since the abandonment of his campaign in Northern Chihuahua, following the intervention of Gen. Ewin during the Villa attack on Juarez, Villa, with the aid of Gen. Felipe Angeles, his chief-of-staff, has doubled his force of effective troops by recruiting in Durango, Zacatecas and Coahuila, and that he now has in Northern Durango, near the town of Mampora, more than 4000 mounted men, well armed and equipped for immediate service. That some forceful movement is impending the Carranzista leaders are themselves aware of having no doubt.

Desertions from the Carranzista ranks are increasing to such an extent that the Carranzista forces are in the capital; on the other hand, the Carranza forces are weak in cavalry, rendering the columns less mobile than those of the Villistas.

It is not known where Villa purposes to strike, but it is reported in Mexico City that he probably will first attempt to isolate Torreon, and then move east to attack Monterrey or Saltillo.

GROCERS-HINES CASE WILL START TODAY.

(BY A. P. MARY WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The complaint of the National Wholesale Grocers' Association against Walker D. Hines, Director-General of Railroads, and each of the railroad systems, individually, hearings on which are to begin today in the United States court here, are expected to be the most important of the year.

The basis of the complaint is charge that the packers, through their control of the refrigerator cars and other equipment, have been able to obtain rate discriminations and traffic favors from the railroad companies, and a consequent unfair advantage in the marketing of foodstuffs.

The grocers do not ask the I.C.C. to deprive the packers of their refrigerator cars, but demand the abolition of all alleged discriminations in service and rates to the packers.

DEED TO FLORIDA FOUND NO PASS.

(BY A. P. MARY WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A copy of Ponce de Leon's grant of Florida by the King of Spain was shown to immigration officials today by four Colombian women, but it failed to qualify them for admission to the United States from France in lieu of the papers prescribed by immigration department regulations.

The officials ruled that the women and thirty-one other passengers must stay aboard the steamer La Touraine because they had not filed out "Form 228."

An appeal has been made to the State Department to permit the embargoed passengers to land.

The Colombians include Senora Teresa de Lanco, wife of the former Colombian Minister to Peru and sister of the Minister to England.

Collective Bargaining Goes Down to Defeat.

Industrial Conference will not Discuss Strike.

Situation Now Just the Same as at Opening Session.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Recognition of the right of workers to bargain collectively was swept aside by the National Industrial Conference tonight in defeating first a proposal by the employers, next a substitute declaration by the conference's general committee, and third the original proposal of the general committee, both the employers and the public representatives voting against it. The conference slata was thus swept clean, and the body brought back to the point where it was when the sessions began, October 6.

Defeated on every point, and having lost the support of the public group which heretofore has been on the side of the workers, the labor delegates left the conference hall tonight disheartened and feeling, as some of them said, that little could be gained by further meetings. However, a meeting of the group has been called for 9 o'clock tomorrow morning and individual members will be bound by action taken at that time.

Should labor show a disposition to bolt the conference, Chairman Lane undoubtedly will use the President's letter in an effort to avert the crisis. Reading of the letter was said to be entirely discretionary with the chairman, who declared that he would not produce it unless the situation became acute. Although labor may force the disclosure of its contents, it was generally predicted tonight that the workers would not withdraw. The President's message, it was understood, restates the purposes for which the conference was convened, emphasizes the urgency of the need for allaying industrial unrest and makes a plea for further work on the part of the conference.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in casting his group's "no" against the employers' proposal, declared that the vote represented the unanimous opinion of his conferees. Bernard M. Baruch made the same statement for the public group, but Harry A. Wheeler, casting the vote of the employers' group, said it represented the opinion of merely a majority of the wing. The farmers, of whom there are three in the employers' group, are believed to have formed the minority section.

The right to organize for the purpose of collective bargaining, Mr. Gompers said, is the one question in controversy—the one thing the working people of the United States are going to achieve.

A hush fell over the crowded auditorium as the labor leader, squarely facing the employers' wing and shaking his finger toward that group, exclaimed to the representatives of American capital:

HURLS THREAT.

"If you do not bear with us in an effort toward construction, if you think it impossible for us to secure relief for the suffering masses of American labor, if you insist on contesting with us every inch of the ground in our battle for better conditions, if you deny us the rights of organization, if you render our work finally impotent, you may destroy us, but you will find yourself facing something else, something worse, and you may come to rue the day that you destroyed the fairness and the willingness to serve that has and does characterize the officials of American trade unionism today."

BOASTS OF POWER.

Mr. Gompers again sounded a note of warning a few moments later when he told the members of the conference that he denied they did not appreciate the "critical situation in which we find ourselves today." The people of the United States, he asserted, are "sitting on a lid industrialism" and turning toward the employers he added, "Whether you like it or not trade unionism has come to the United States to stay."

Concluding with the statement that although the conference may fail to achieve the real needs of the workers, he said the organized labor movement would continue to flourish, and "whatever we are doing today, we will win tomorrow."

SUBSTITUTE OFFERED.

Before Chairman Lane could call for a vote on the resolution before the convention, the so-called Chadbourne collective bargaining resolution which was introduced by the public group and sponsored by the labor conferees—Mr. Chadbourne introduced a substitute resolution which read:

A declaration of the laborers to organize in associations of their own choosing to bargain collectively, to be represented by representatives of their own choosing in negotiations and adjustments with employers, and in respect to wages, hours of labor and rules and conditions of employment is recognized.

"This must not be understood as limiting the right of any wage-earner to refrain from joining any organization or deal directly with his employer if he chooses."

PUBLIC WING ALONE.

Little time, however, was lost in disposing of the Chadbourne substitute resolution, the labor side of the public separating forces for the first time when the vote was taken. The public wing alone voted in favor of the measure, capital and labor uniting forces against it in an effort to force immediate consideration of the original Chadbourne resolution.

A declaration of the imperative necessity of holding the national industrial conference together until it has accomplished the purpose for which it was called is understood to form the keynote of a 600-word letter which President Wilson sent to day to Secretary Lane of the Interior Department, chairman of the conference.

A VIGOROUS APPEAL.

The President was said to have outlined those purposes at some length. His letter was described by those who had read it as "an extremely powerful document," written in the vigorous style which characterized the Executive's writings before his illness.

Secretary Lane said he would not lay the letter before the conference except as a last resort, to prevent dissolution of the gathering. He added that he thought the conference should work out its own destiny if possible and be its own master.

The leaders in the conference said it was possible a recess of a week should be taken, so as to give the various groups and the committees an opportunity to work out a new program in an effort to reconcile the differences between the capital and labor groups. Mr. Lane approves this course, and the capital group was represented as favorably disposed toward this plan.

The President's signature was written on the bias across the sheet and apparently his hand was somewhat shaky when he signed it. Mr. Tumulty immediately left to present the letter to Mr. Lane.

Before the brief session today, Chairman Lane said that the leaders of the three groups, capital, labor and the public, had decided to frame a new program, involving all industrial issues of a general nature. It was understood that reference to the specific issue that has caused the present situation would be avoided.

Several members of the labor group plainly were impatient. Delegates in the public group, however, were confident that the labor representatives would not leave the conference, but would seek to press the advantage gained through having succeeded in bringing the public representatives into line with them on every important issue thus far introduced.

Among the resolutions introduced at the session this morning was one by L. A. Loree, of the capital group, urging a declaration in favor of employment furnishing insurance policies covering the five major hazards—sickness, accident, unemployment, superannuation and death. Mr. Loree said such policies "would enable the insured to set up an estate with the initial payment, would relieve the fear of want, would give security and independence, and would encourage habits of thrift."

Under a resolution by T. C. Aike-son, a farmers' delegate in the capital group, the conference would declare in favor of the right of farmers to form co-operative marketing organizations in order to maintain the price of their products.

Timothy Shea, chief of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engine-men, took his seat in the labor group today in the place of F. J. McNamara. Mr. Shea said he had been unable to attend heretofore owing to negotiations with the Railroad Administration.

Arrangements have been completed whereby sales to cities and communities at a distance from the retail stores will be facilitated. A discount of 10 per cent. on the entire bill will be allowed to municipalities, districts, and to bona-fide community buying organizations, in order to make allowance for the overhead expense incurred by the organization in handling and distributing the supplies. Assurance must be given by the purchasing agent that the supplies will be delivered to the consumer at the government price, however, and sales to organizations will not be made until such assurance is given. Re-claimed and renovated articles will also be sold on this plan, and an inspection of the goods will be made by the purchaser for the organization or community before they are shipped. Freight charges will be prepaid.

The government's programme, already announced, includes the following measures:

A joint industrial council of capital and labor, with extensive powers.

A maximum working week of forty-eight hours and a minimum wage for manual workers.

The purchase of mining royalties.

Prohibition of dumping and the protection of key industries.

The development and control of a nation-wide electric and water-power supply.

The appointment of a commission to succeed the war-time liquor control board.

Last, but not least, a new home-rule bill.

Hope of a workable home-rule bill are not glowing. The Usterites profess to believe that the government merely expects to launch some scheme to conciliate American and colonial opinion. With Republicans in the majority in Southern Ireland, they might ignore any British plan for an Irish Parliament, as the Sinn Fein members refuse to recognize the British Parliament. They might refuse to take part in the elections, Irish Nationalists say. If the Sinn Fein did enter an Irish Parliament their first act would be to declare Ireland an independent republic.

The government's committee has-ing under consideration the home-rule bill is not expected to report before December.

The government will be pressed by economists to introduce a budget materially cutting down expenses, particularly the military programme included in the last budget. Extreme economists propose to agitate for the dropping of the new education scheme, which sets up many schools at great expense and also the throwing overboard of the housing proposals, whereby the construction of many thousands of homes for workmen is provided for at a cost which in the present building market would be colossal.

TIFFANY STUDIOS

Have Just Received and Placed on Exhibition and Sale

AN ASSORTED COLLECTION OF FAVRILE GLASS

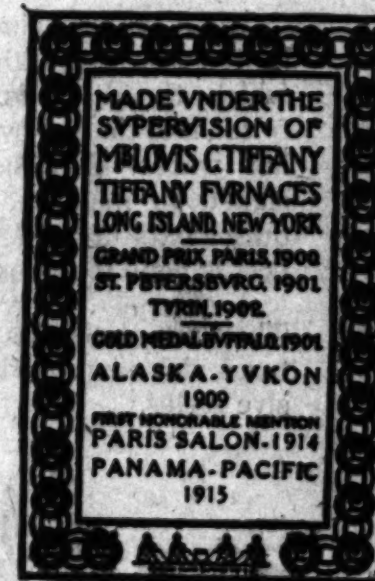

For many years there has been a constant succession of new developments in the manufacture of this very artistic and decorative glass, and it still maintains an enviable reputation as one of the finest results of an exhaustive study on the part of the Tiffany Studios.

In this collection are Grand Prix Pieces from the Paris Salon and San Francisco Expositions. Artists, and Connoisseurs the world over have been collectors of this line; the museums of Europe and this country have also added to their displays of art and technical objects many examples of Favre Glass as marking a distinctive advance in Ancient Art.

To make something new, original, perhaps combining the beauties of other periods, but with the always determined effort to excel and not to copy, has been the aim of Mr. Tiffany and his coadjutors. In an art such as this, so closely covered by so many workers and so many minds, it is not easy to succeed, or even to claim originality. However, this production shows skill, both in conception and execution, and the work has been appreciated accordingly.

BOMB-CASE LETTERS SHOWN AS TESTIMONY.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 21.—Testimony this afternoon in the case of Mrs. Ethel McGowan, charged with attempting to extort money from Gov. Stephens, was wholly technical and consisted of comparison by Milton Carlson, Los Angeles handwriting expert, of letters admitted to have been written by Mrs. McGowan with the note sent to the Governor demanding $500 on pain of blowing up the Capitol.
Similarity in shading the letter "T" was one of several striking likenesses, Carlson, who described himself as "an examiner and photographer of questioned documents," told the jury.
Attorney Luke Howe, for the defense, indicated no expert testimony would be offered by his side.

Longshoremen Return to Work on Chelsea Pier.

Great Transoceanic Ships are Now to Sail Again.

Conservative Union Men are Tired of Red Rule.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—B. N. Squire, secretary of the National Adjustment Commission, announced today that he had been officially notified that the longshoremen employed on the Chelsea pier, comprising the largest local in the port, would return to work tomorrow. The Chelsea pier is the headquarters for the Cunard, White Star, American Line, French Line, Red Star and other large transoceanic companies.

The Swedish-American Steamship Company announced today that sailing of their vessels would be immediately resumed, in view of improved port conditions.
T. V. O'Connor, president of the International Longshoremen's Association, informed local representatives of the United States Shipping Board late today that "the conservative members of the longshoremen's union" would return to work on all piers tomorrow morning.

The longshoremen employed in Hoboken on the army piers and other steamship docks met this afternoon to vote on the question of returning to work.

WORK UNDER GUARD.
The International Mercantile Marine, which has forty ships tied up in the port, put nonunion workers at work moving cargoes, and 100 United States troops began work in gunnery at army piers where transports to and from Europe have been held up.

Army officials made it plain that troops brought here from Newport News would be used solely as workmen at army piers, and would not appear at private or shipping board docks. Heavy police guards, however, were on duty at other piers. Maj.-Gen. David H. Shanks, commanding the navy's occupation at Hoboken, deplored reports that men were equipped with machine guns and were to be scattered along the various piers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Near the end of a meeting which lasted well into the hours of the morning, the Riggers and Stevedores' Union here adopted a resolution asking other unions of waterfront workers "to come to our assistance before our union is destroyed."

The employees thus called to join the stevedores, who are idle for the end of a month's duration caused by differences over working conditions. The stevedores are employed by the Togo Kisen Kaisha, a Japanese steamship line. The difference between the men and the company have been compromised, it was announced.
The company, which is not a member of the Water-front Employers' Union, is reported to have offered the men $4 a day, a forty-eight-hour week, fourteen vacation days and 1500 pounds to be a stink load. The men's original demands were $5 a day, a forty-four-hour week, fifteen vacation days and 1500 pounds to be a stink load.

The stevedores who still are idle were expected to take the part in the direction of the company for men now on strike here in a number of industries. The system was originated by strikers' organizations here.

The Associated Retail Credit Men of Los Angeles held their annual election last night at 241 South Broadway. A banquet and a motion picture revue were held at the same time.

The officers, both the elected and the retiring, are: President, retiring, A. L. Lombard, elected, J. W. Lewis; vice-president, retiring, J. W. Lewis, elected, L. M. Cosworth; secretary, retiring, J. W. Lewis, elected, J. W. Lewis; treasurer, retiring, H. J. Pyle, elected, C. L. Parkhill. On the board of directors are A. L. Lombard, P. W. Heide, W. E. Grigg and W. A. McKenna.

TRACED THROUGH GIRL.

C. E. Willard Arrested on Wire Warrant Charging Felony.

Traced through a girl friend, C. E. Willard was arrested at 1715 West Sixth street last night by Deputy Sheriff Fox and Nolan on a telegraphic warrant from Scott, Neb., charging a felony. Willard said he has been here since August 23 and does not know what he is wanted for unless it be in connection with a stock and bond deal the particulars of which he refused to give. He said he will not fight extradition. The officers had been hunting for Willard for two weeks and located him by following a girl whose name they did not divulge.

Dyspepsia and Home Life

What a Relief When All the Family Eat the Same Food! Avoid Dyspepsia, Sour Ripples, Gas—Indigestion from Breakfast Sausage to Dinner Mince Pie.

After mother has struggled two or three hours over a hot fire to do the cooking for a hungry family, it

To Be Free of Indigestion Contribute to the Happiness of Home Life.

Is real enjoyment when there isn't a dyspeptic flax among them. Of course, a case of dyspepsia or daily indigestion must be looked after. But it is far more to the point to prevent as well as to treat sour stomach, belching, water brash, etc., by such a valuable means as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Coddling the stomach with soft food and undigested stuff merely invites sluggishness.

But your little pork sausages for breakfast without fears; have a plate of beans and a piece of pie with cheese for lunch, and end the day with a real dinner. Instead of a bowl of bread and milk. Follow each meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and get right back to your natural self.

These tablets digest food and assist the stomach to prepare the content for assimilation in the intestinal tract. Thus you get the practical relief and help which induces a better appetite and a greater freedom in the selection of foods. You will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale at any drug store in the United States and Canada, as they are considered one of the stand-bys by the druggist.

DECISION IN GERMAN OPERA CASE TODAY.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Production of German opera at the Lexington Theater, which last night provoked rioting by service men, tonight was discontinued pending the outcome of legal warfare begun by Max D. Steuer, attorney for the producers.

EASTERN STARS IN SESSION.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 21.—The forty-seventh annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star of California began here today. More than 1000 delegates were present. Grand Matron Elizabeth Marshall of Sacramento presided. Worthy Grand Patron Dugan W. Pierce recommended that two appointive offices, those of Grand Conductress and Grand Associate Conductress, be made elective, and that the Grand Matron, instead of the Grand Patron, be the head of the order hereafter. Increase in membership during the year was reported as 2400. A grand ball was held this evening.

THE TALE OF A PIG.

Ham, Hot and Cold, and Nine Days Old, and What Came of It.

There is such a considerable saving in cost when a whole ham is purchased, and ham can be used in such a variety of appetizing left-overs that to cook a ham for the Sunday dinner settles the meat question for nearly the rest of the week.

It's a question which is the better, boiled or baked ham. Certainly there's a delicious flavor to ham boiled in cider. Soak a ham in cold water over night, drain and wipe dry. Put into a kettle with enough sweet cider to cover and pepper, bay leaves and cloves to season. Bring gradually to a boil, skim and simmer slowly until done, allowing half an hour to every pound. When cooked, put on a baking dish, remove the skin and put into the oven until the crust is brown. Serve hot or cold. If served hot, thicken the liquid it was boiled in with browned flour and serve as a sauce. Garnish with ripe olives and parsley.

Those mighty appetizing recipes for preparing ham—"Virginia baked ham," "Kentucky baked ham," calling for sherry or Madeira, will have to be discarded by most of us now, but we can try cider in lieu of champagne and experiment with ham baked with cider. Clean the ham thoroughly, soak over night in cold water, make a thick paste of flour and water and encase the ham in it completely. Bake in a hot oven until the paste is cooked, then lower the temperature and bake slowly for five hours. At the end of the fourth hour make a hole in the paste and put in one cupful of hot cider. Add more if needed. When tender remove the crust and skin, brush with beaten yolk of egg, sprinkle with sugar and bake brown in the oven. Serve either hot or cold. Cover the bone with a paper foil and garnish with parsley.

Now for the second-day meals and the left-over dishes from the ham. As a breakfast suggestion you might try ham and potato balls. Mix two cupfuls of mashed potatoes with a teaspoonful of vinegar, a teaspoonful of sugar, a dash of salt, and a dash of pepper. When cold and stiff, pat a small quantity of it smooth with the hands and put into the oven and bake. A bit of chopped and seasoned cooked ham. Fold the potato over, roll into a smooth ball and put in a cool place until stiff. Dip in beaten egg, then in bread crumbs and fry in deep fat.

For a substantial dinner dish try baked ham with noodles. Butter an earthen baking dish and fill with alternate layers of cold, sliced, chopped ham and cooked and drained noodles. Have ham on top. Beat two eggs with a cupful of milk, pour over, cover with crumbs, dot with butter and brown in the oven.

Then there is a pleasing variant of the ham and egg combination. Season as ham puffs. Bring to the boil one cupful of milk and stir in two tablespoonfuls of flour made smooth with a little cold milk. When cool, add one cupful of finely chopped cooked ham and two eggs beaten separately. Put into a baking dish in a pan of hot water and bake for twenty minutes.

Or perhaps you'd prefer ham soufflé. Chop very fine and rub smooth one cupful of cold, cooked ham. Mix with two tablespoonfuls of thick cream sauce, and a teaspoonful of minced parsley. Fold in lightly the beaten whites of the eggs, set the dish into a pan of hot water and bake until well puffed and brown. Serve immediately.

Soufflés have an unhappy fashion of falling, so a much easier way to serve ham and eggs is egg scramble. Mix cold, cooked, chopped ham with minced onion to season. Heat thoroughly and pour on well-beaten eggs, using as many as required for the quantity of the ham. Cook until the eggs set, stirring occasionally and serve on toast.

Eggs are so dear now that a less expensive combination can be made from ham and rice. Boil one cupful of rice and mix with one cupful of cold, cooked ham, chopped fine. Add a tablespoonful of butter and season with pepper. Place in a baking dish, in a warm oven, beat the eggs set, stirring occasionally and serve on toast.

The above recipes call for the use of the odds and ends of ham. If you have some slices left, an attractive way to serve them is as barbecued ham. Cut thin slices of cold boiled ham, fry on both sides. Remove to a hot platter. Heat in a frying pan four tablespoonfuls of vinegar, a teaspoonful of sugar, a dash of paprika. When boiling hot pour over the fried ham and serve.

If you should be fortunate enough to have some sherry a delicious way of preparing the ham is ham in the chafing dish. Cut thin slices of cold ham and fry on both sides. Remove to a hot platter. Heat in a frying pan four tablespoonfuls of butter and a tablespoonful of vinegar. Sprinkle the slices with powdered sugar and pile into the chafing dish. Add half a cupful of sherry, cover and cook for fifteen minutes, heating four times. Serve very hot.

HOME MADE PRANKS FOR HOLLOWE'EN.

"Come on, my little Halloween. Let us seek the dreadful scene. Where the witches, imps and devils.

Elves and ghosts will hold their revels."

HALLOWEEN MENUS.

Cold ham in aspic jelly. Pickles. Brown bread and butter sandwiches. Cheese and nut sandwiches. Sugar doughnuts. Coffee. Popcorn balls. Fudge.

GUAVA JELLY.

From Pasadena comes a request for guava jelly. Pick over and wash guavas, slice and boil with enough water to cover. Simmer until the fruit is soft and the seeds drop from the pulp. Strain over night through a jelly bag. Measure in the morning and add the juice of one lime to each quart of juice. Boil until the juice has been boiled down one-fourth, which can be told by the lowered ring on the inside of the kettle. Add sugar, cup for cup, with the juice. Boil until it drops thick from the spoon.

A BUFFET LUNCH.

Hot bacon sandwiches. Potato salad. Olives. Dill Pickles. Toasted marshmallows. Doughnuts. Coffee.

FRUIT CANDIES.

Of course fudge is delicious and no gathering of young people is ever quite complete without it, but just for a change why not try some of the very delicious candy combinations that can be made from fruits, for instance—

Orange Balmies.
Dissolve three cupfuls of brown sugar and four tablespoonfuls of butter in one cupful of water; then add a pinch of cream of tartar and boil until it forms a hard ball when tried in cold water, or until it reaches 248 deg. by the thermometer. Add one teaspoonful of orange extract, two cupfuls of chopped candied orange peel, two cupfuls of chopped nut meats and a few drops of orange color, and set aside to cool. Then beat it until it is creamy, and drop from the end of a teaspoon on waxed paper. Pineapple is especially delicious when made into

Pineapple Bars.
Put two cupfuls of sugar into a saucepan; add one cupful of cream and one tablespoonful of golden syrup, then stir together until the mixture boils; add two cupfuls of chopped preserved pineapple and the strained juice of half a lemon, and boil briskly for ten minutes, or to 248 deg. by the thermometer. Remove from the fire, allow to cool for two minutes, and beat with a wooden spoon until the mixture is sugary and shows signs of stiffening. Pour into a buttered tin, and when half cold, cut into neat bars. Other candies are made from the same foundation, such as ginger, tutti-frutti and fig candy.

Anyone who recalls the leathery "jelly" we used to buy might hesitate to try the following recipe, but be assured it has nothing in common with those tough candies of by-gone days, although it is called Fruit Jellies.

Pour off the juice from a can of peaches or apricots; then rub them through a fine sieve. Weigh one pound of this puree and put it into a saucepan; add one cupful of sugar and half a cup of water, and bring to boiling point, stirring all the time. Continue to stir until very thick or when a drop placed on a platter will set. Let the puree cool; then add one teaspoonful of almond extract and drop on waxed paper. When quite cold remove the paper, and stick two of the drops together. Roll in colored sugar, or in melted fondant or chocolate.

Glaze Apples.
A most appetizing dish, as well as a deliciously inviting in appearance, is prepared by coating and paring tart apples all the same size. For five or six apples cook one cup of sugar and a cup of water for two or three minutes, then put in the apples and let simmer slowly until tender throughout, turning often. Remove as soon as cooked to a baking dish, pour a little of the syrup over them, dredge with granulated sugar and set the dish into an oven to form a glaze over the apples. When glazed, pour the rest of the syrup around the apples.

There is no merrier night of the whole year for gatherings of young people of marriageable age. Halloween, for some unknown reason, has come to be regarded as a festival for lovers as well as for goblins and witches and many are the mystic rites to be performed that night.

The shops are full of clever invitations, decorations and favors for Halloween gatherings, and since most of them are of crepe paper, striking effects can be obtained at small cost. Of course witches predominate and one clever hostess last year added ghosts to her decorations with telling effect.

The porch lights were shrouded in blue through which the light shone with a dim and weird effect. Guests were received at the foot of their hostess's lawn by a sheeted figure, which stepped out of the darkness before them and silently pointed to the house. Sheeted apparitions, their garments waving in the wind, dangled from the tree branches on each side of the path, and another eerie white figure, its fingers on its lips, met the young people at the door and led them into inner darkness. To reach the reception-room each newcomer had to pass a huge ghost nine feet high which swung in a dark corner at the foot of the stairs. A small goblin, concealed behind the flowing drapery of this tenderous apparition, took wicked delight in the consternation which followed as he swung the ghostly figure slowly forward to salute each approaching guest.

After this spectral introduction the living-room with its open fire, its decorations of yellow and scarlet flowers, its lights shaded with yellow crepe paper, and the cheerful grinning pumpkin jack-o'-lanterns on mantel and book shelves, seemed the most joyous place imaginable and everyone was ready for the old-fashioned Halloween games and tests.

place a candied cherry in the center of each and serve either hot or cold. As the syrup cools it will form a jelly.

Savory Breakfast Dish.
Tired of hot buttered toast for breakfast? Then try baked milk toast tomorrow. To make it, cut slices of bread half an inch thick and toast a light brown. As you remove each piece from the toaster dip into boiling water, salted, and lay in a buttered baking dish. Butter the toast while hot, salted each slice. Cover with scalding milk, in which has been melted a teaspoonful of butter. Cover closely and bake fifteen minutes. This makes a tempting breakfast dish for those who do not care for "hearty" breakfasts.

Buy a box and boost the Horse Show. Excellent classes every day. (Advertisement.)

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

A double thickness of flannel sewed around the arm of the sewing machine will make a good cushion for the needles and pins and you will often be glad to have these so handy.

It is a good idea to remove matches from the box in which they come and put them into a glass jar with a screw top. This will obviate all danger.

The table cloth that has become worn at the corners and un-slightly may do service as an apron.
Slightly cover one end for the apron and cut the cloth either round or into a point at the bottom.
It can be bound with tape and tape can be used for the strings. It will make a handy apron for the sink work or for wash days.

Milk spots can be removed with cold water and soap. Hot water may set the stain and if the goods are boiled with the stain in, it is almost impossible to remove it.
Place clothes in two piles when ironing to avoid sootings them later. Those which need mending may be put in one lot and those which are whole in another. While ironing it is easy to notice a torn place or where a button is missing.

MAKING PASTIME OF MOVING DAY.

The following suggestion for system in moving may prove as useful to you as it has for other families.
It will at least prevent the frantic and futile search for some absolutely necessary object that you "could swear I put right in the tray of that trunk," but which you later find in the buffet drawer.

When about to move to a new house get a number of empty boxes, a corresponding number of tags or blank cards, and a note book. Tack one of the tags or cards on the first box you start to pack and mark it
No. 1; also the room in which you wish to have it placed when you reach the new house. As the different things are put in the box make a memorandum of them in your note book under "Box one." Do this with every box you pack. As the mover carries a box in from the van to the house, he has only to glance at the card to see where it is to be put, as "Kitchen," "Front Chamber," "Laundry," "Attic," etc.
No time is lost in giving confusing instructions, and the work will proceed faster. When any particular article is needed it is the work of a few moments only to refer to your notebook to determine the exact location of the desired object. Some boxes, if packed according to this system, can be put away and unpacked leisurely when the worst of the moving and settling is over. For this reason, remember to put the most necessary things together in boxes. If goods are shipped to a distant point, and any box is missing, it is possible by this method to trace it or file an intelligent claim for damages.

WOODWORK IN THE FLAT

When It Clashes With Furniture,
Try Combination in Draperies.

Nowadays, when the demand for living accommodations is so much greater than the supply, apartment-houses and bungalows are built in such haste that little care has been taken to have the best possible results in any room. The woodwork has been installed without regard to the furniture which will sometimes take its place there. Owners of mahogany furniture are confronted with the problem of harmonizing it with oak woodwork, and there is that nondescript, reddish brown stain, such a favorite with the average contractor and so appalling in the way in which it clashes with woodwork of either dull oak or mahogany.

The solution of the problem does not lie in the doing over of the woodwork. For while this is, of course, the most satisfactory way, and the best choice of a finish is white paint, in most cases it is un-feasible, as it is sometimes difficult to obtain permission to make the change, but more often it is hardly worth while to go to all the trouble and expense entailed unless one is more certain of permanency than is the average metropolitan resident.

The easiest solution lies in the choice of hangings. It is possible by this means to cover up the greater part of the woodwork and to make the remaining expanse, such as the baseboard, mantel, etc., not so glaringly ugly by the proper combination of colors in these hangings.

For instance, in the case of the yellow oak woodwork and mahogany furniture, cretonne could be found with, perhaps, a cream ground and well covered with a design of tan, which blends with the
oak and a red brown, which blends
with the mahogany, and maybe a little green and blue.

But the predominant note should be the tan and brown. This will give a rich effect to the whole room and make a harmonious color scheme. With figured hangings of this kind one should have plain wall paper and a floor covering not too pronounced in design. In the problem of trying to combine the red woodwork with, perhaps, a cream
ground and well covered with a design of tan, which blends with the
oak and a red brown, which blends
with the mahogany, and maybe a little green and blue.

"What Fools Ye Mortals Be!"

When the King would say "What Fools Ye Mortals Be" of whom would he be thinking?

Perhaps the King would have thought Piggly Wiggly foolish for selling on so close a margin—the Piggly Wiggly policy of a little profit on everything and not too much profit on anything has certainly proven a great success in more than 100 cities and is a 1920 idea.

Perhaps the King would have thought Piggly Wiggly foolish to come to Los Angeles where competition is supposed to be very keen—why leave out Los Angeles—competition is the life of trade.

Perhaps the King would have thought the owners of Piggly Wiggly foolish for being in the grocery business when other businesses such as banking, etc., are supposed to be more profitable—the owners of Piggly Wiggly own several banks.

Perhaps the King would have thought that Grocers who give service are foolish for trying to sell on as close a margin as Piggly Wiggly—they are surely entitled to more profit and they usually get it.

Perhaps the King would have thought that the grocers who are making "his fight to drive out Piggly Wiggly are foolish to worry—no one firm has ever been able to get it all.

Perhaps the King would have thought that those who trade with Piggly Wiggly are wise—leave that to the "Queens."

INDOOR GARDENS.

Novel Ways of Making Them Attractive and Useful.

Something new in window boxes appeared in a shop window the other day. It was of metal in most up-to-date, approved style, but it was encased in a closely-woven backet with long handles reaching from corner to corner, crossing high enough above the plants for one to carry it about easily without crushing the contents. This basket was painted green and was adorned simply with a small bunch of conventional flowers, painted on in the center of each of the long sides. These were in several soft, harmonizing colors, in order not to interfere with what might later be growing in the box.

Another attractive flower box for the window is of painted wood. One of bright blue was outlined in narrow stripes, in a checkerboard arrangement of small black and yellow squares. At each corner was, at the lower edge, a larger square resembling a miniature checkerboard.

One woman with a small apartment decorated in shades of brown covered her indoor flower boxes with that matting which the Japanese or Chinese merchants so often use in packing. Upon this she stenciled a simple geometrical design in shades of brown and seange, and the effect was most attractive; nor did the decoration detract in the least from the beauty of her flowers, when they blossomed, and yet was a pleasing note when the plants were not in bloom.

A row of plant boxes used in a sun parlor were contained in brown, handleless baskets, made to fit them, and those were given touches of color by motifs or designs cut out of cretonne, both flowers and birds, butterflies, too, which were glued into place and the whole backet then varnished over.

Other baskets are strikingly enameled in shades of rose, orange, vivid blue, beautiful gray-green and fit in long narrow trays of wicker enameled to match. The wicker trays have glass bottoms so that there is no danger of staining or marring the window sills or tables underneath the plants.

FABRIC FOR MANY USES.

One housekeeper has discovered that Indian Head is an exceptionally satisfactory fabric for towels, especially as dish towels, as it absorbs the moisture rapidly, wears longer than the usual variety of towelings and sheds no lint on glassware. When made into everyday napkins, Indian Head is practical, since it launders beautifully and has durability. It makes attractive aprons, when finished with a touch of color in piping or simple embroidery of mercerized flax.

"What Fools Ye Mortals Be!"
$25.00 winning answer—by Mrs. A.
W. Scherping, of 201 E. Ave. 31, Los Angeles, in answer to what would King Solomon have said after reading the following article which appeared in the Commercial Bulletin—well-known local trade journal.

NEW PRICE WAR RAGES IN L. A.

Many Stores Being Shipped to Near Jobber's Cost by Down-town and Chalk Store Cutters—Apparently Precipitated by Entrance of New Piggly-Wiggly Chain.

After a period of comparative quiet among the cut-rate stores of Los Angeles, a new price war has broken out, which for its general scope and intensity outshines anything of its kind that has been staged in this market for a long time. Virtually every large factor in the trade seems to have entered into the struggle, and as a result there is a general slashing of prices in some cases below jobber's
cost.

A census of some of the leading down-town establishments and chain branches today disclosed some of the following prices:

Cutting on Wide Range Large Cans is selling as low as $1.70; other stores quote from $1.71 to $1.85. The smaller sizes are selling in proportion.

Package crackers which have been selling at a close price of 9 and 17 cents, are quoted two for 15 cents for small, and 15 cents for large.

Standard brands of milk are listed at 15¢@16¢ cents.
Large Postum is quoted at 13 and 19 cents.

Golden Age macaroni is quoted at 5 cents, but customers are generally limited in quantity they may purchase.
Standard brands of coffee are quoted 4¢@4¢ cents in one-pound tins;
$1.15@1.17 in 3s.

Standard brands of laundry soap
are generally listed at around 5¢ pounds with an occasional 5 cent price.
Sugar is being offered in some quarters at 10 cents a pound, but this product is in such short supply that it is not generally quoted as a leader.

Cutting is not confined to any particular line of goods; almost any staple or well-advertised brand of merchandise being almost. So far, bread, the good old standby for the price cutter, has not been attacked.

The origin of the fight is a trifle clouded, but apparently it has been precipitated by the recent entrance of the Piggly-Wiggly chain, rather than by the revival of any dormant animosities among the older members of the trade. This chain is getting most collocations on a very narrow market, some of the lowest prices quoted above being listed by its stores.

The entrance of the fight will be watched with much interest by the trade. Without question, prices are being forced to a point where even a large store which has a "buying edge" on its small competitors, can hardly break even if they can do so at all.
Therefore, if the battle continues, it is likely to affect trade conditions quite adversely, and so far there is no indication of any cessation of hostil-ties.

MAY KEEP ARMY DEPOT FOR CITY.

Matter Now Rests with the Quartermaster-General.

Help of Local Business Men Sought for Campaign.

Value of Army Office Shown in Data Compiled Here.

The fight to retain the army quartermaster depot in Los Angeles may yet be successful if business men of the city get together behind those who have been pressing the campaign at Washington, according to officials of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. On account of the early date set for the abandonment of the depot, it was stated, prompt action will have to be taken. The order for the abandonment of the depot has been issued and large quantities of supplies now in storage at local warehouses may be transferred to San Francisco soon if the Los Angeles depot is not made permanent.

Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce has received from Congressman Osborne a letter in which he tells of the fight that he and Senator Phelan are waging in Washington to have the order for the abandonment of the depot rescinded. Mr. Osborne stated that he has taken the matter up directly with Quartermaster-General Rogers and has urged that the local depot be retained at least as long as any war department on the Pacific Coast.

GOVERNMENT WILL LOSE. He has called the attention of the Quartermaster-General to the fact that if the present plans to purchase Camp Kearney for the purpose of making it the permanent station of the Second Division are carried out, the closing of the local quartermaster depot will mean considerable loss to the government.

He told the Quartermaster-General that Los Angeles is the logical distributing point for the supplies for Camp Kearney, and with approximately 10,000 men stationed there the saving in transportation, together with savings that can be made in the purchase of large quantities of supplies locally, will amount to a large sum.

SHOW THE LOSS. The Chamber of Commerce has compiled statistics showing the disbursements of the United States Army depot at Camp Kearney, California, for the year 1917. These figures show that a total of $4,222,622.31 was paid out by the local depot for supplies, including food, clothing, and other necessities, and for army pay. The principal items of supplies supplied by the depot were: Flour, $1,171,000; meat, $1,171,000; and other supplies, $1,880,622.31. The Chamber of Commerce is now circulating these figures among local business men, and is asking them to sign a petition to the Quartermaster-General, asking that the local depot be made permanent.

STOPS COERCION OF WORKERS AT HARBOR.

UNION MEMBERS PERKING SUIT BY COMPANY.

Judge Wells, sitting for Judge Jackson in Department Sixteen, yesterday granted an injunction to the Outer Dock and Wharf Company, pending the trial of the company's suit against the Pacific Coast district of the International Longshoremen's Association, local No. 24-18, its officers and members, charging them with interfering with the workers and endeavoring to establish a closed shop.

The defendants or their counsel will not appear in court. James Reed, secretary of the local, appeared in answer to a subpoena, bringing in the membership books. These books were directed to be taken to the office of Andrews, Toland & Andrews, counsel for the dock company, so the names of the members could be obtained. The purpose of the defendants, the complaint states, is to prevent the plaintiff from carrying on its business and to establish a closed shop. Threats, coercion and intimidation have been resorted to during the strike. It is alleged. It was stated also that workers have been abused and one beaten.

FOR MANSLAUGHTER.

Complaint Issued Against Auto Owner in Worker's Death.

In a complaint issued yesterday by Deputy District Attorney Randall, W. T. Webber is accused of involuntary manslaughter for the death of E. L. Mullin, a mechanic of the Pacific Electric Company. According to information given by Mr. Randall, Webber drove his car at a high rate of speed along Seventh street, and at Maple avenue, where Mullin and several other workmen were waiting a switch, crashed through a number of lights, striking Mullin. Webber was later arrested in a cafe. He said he did not see the lights or the workmen.

AVIATOR ARRESTED.

Former Army Captain Taken for Ventura Felony.

On a felony warrant from Ventura and Smith, a former captain and aviator, was arrested here, yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Dewar. Smith, it was said at the Sheriff's office, was turned in by his bondsmen after having been released at Ventura on $500 cash bail. He was lodged in the County Jail.

STORM RAISED BY HUMPHREYS.

After Resigning Returns to Civil Service Board.

Mayor Resents Action; Fight in Prospect Over Post.

City Attorney's Opinion is Asked by Commission.

Is William M. Humphreys, widely known as a Democratic politician, and until last Friday night chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, a member of the City Civil Service Commission, as is not?

This question caused a decided stir at the City Hall yesterday. The Civil Service Commission sent a letter to the City Attorney asking his advice on the subject. The Mayor will do likewise.

Mr. Humphreys said he was a member of the commission yesterday, resuming this duty for the first time since May 14, when he tendered his resignation to Mayor Woodman. Mr. Humphreys says his resignation was never accepted, and that he has simply been in the position of an absentee from meetings on the board. He sent a letter to Mayor Snyder yesterday formally withdrawing the resignation.

"I was simply surprised beyond even an expression when I learned of Mr. Humphreys' action," said Mayor Snyder last evening.

ANNOUNCED HIMSELF.

Mr. Humphreys appeared at the meeting of the Civil Service Commission yesterday morning, and made a statement to the effect that in the last municipal campaign he had felt that as he was chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee and proposed to take an active part in the municipal campaign, it would be appropriate for him to retire from the commission; that he had tendered his resignation to Mayor Woodman on May 14, but that Mayor Woodman had emphatically refused to accept it. He had then decided simply to absent himself from the meetings of the board until he finished his campaign work, and retired from the chairmanship of the Democratic County Central Committee. He stated that he was now ready to resume his work on the commission.

Commissioner Pearson suggested that the board should ask the opinion of the City Attorney as to the status of Mr. Humphreys, and this was done, but no reply has yet been received. "Before I returned to the board," said Mr. Humphreys in his address, "I had conferred with City Attorney Burnell, and they were assured that I would be within my rights to resume my work on the board."

"I am not taking this action to embarrass Mayor Woodman," said Mr. Humphreys. "I feel that as my resignation has not been accepted I am still a member of the board, and the situation I hold, which was the cause of some criticism, have been dropped, so that I am free again to act with other members of the Civil Service Commission."

TODAY I sent a letter to the Mayor stating that the resignation, which had not been accepted, was withdrawn."

FINE LEGAL POINT.

City Attorney Burnell is in Riverdale, and Assistant City Attorney Jess Humphreys said last evening that he is not prepared to give an opinion on the matter of Mr. Humphreys' right to sit on the commission, without further investigation. "The fine legal point involved is as to whether a resignation becomes such when it is tendered or when it is formally accepted. If it is the latter, then Mr. Humphreys is not a member of the commission, and his resignation is not valid."

Very soon after Mayor Humphreys took office there came a break between himself and Mr. Woodman, and it was said that Mr. Humphreys had not visited the Mayor's office. "I did not prepare, nor did I prepare, that Mr. Woodman would be so to me as to what I must keep my hands off of," said Mayor Humphreys last evening. "Mr. Woodman said that he would not accept my resignation, and I shall make."

The Mayor has power to remove Mr. Humphreys from the Civil Service Commission, but it is a matter of that body—only with the consent of the City Council.

MOTHERS' BUREAU TO HAVE ANNIVERSARY.

To show their appreciation of the services of the people and institutions that have rendered valuable assistance to the City Mothers' Bureau, the officials of that organization will celebrate the quinquennial anniversary of the bureau's inception with a complimentary banquet at the Alexandria at 6:30 p.m. October 23, to which 116 prominent men and women of Los Angeles have been invited.

"We have been working hard for five years, without a day's rest, and I think it is our turn to take a little recreation, and incidentally, to show our appreciation of the help we have received from the splendid people of Los Angeles," said Mrs. Allice Gilbert, who has been connected with the bureau since its inception. "We have been working hard for five years, without a day's rest, and I think it is our turn to take a little recreation, and incidentally, to show our appreciation of the help we have received from the splendid people of Los Angeles," said Mrs. Allice Gilbert, who has been connected with the bureau since its inception.

Stomach Trouble.
There are many who should be greatly encouraged to know that stomach troubles can be cured. Mrs. E. H. Hurlbut, who has been sick for three months with stomach trouble and constipation. She saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and decided to try them. "I had her tell it: 'The first dose did me more good than all of the medicine I had previously taken and by taking two bottles of the tablets I have positively cured.'" possible. I would love to marry you if I could. The circumstances under which we met would not deter me. We are at the end of our lives, guided by circumstances over which, frequently, we have no control. They who lead into darkness and again they may lead to the light. In either event, the soul, the heart, will remain pure and true. These precious things apply to ourselves. If we are bad and rotten and false, we will show no better colors under any circumstances. But your sphere of influence is the only life, the excitement and enjoyment afforded the city dweller for the quiet and untroubled, the wholesome country life. I on the other hand, shall seek my salvation at the bosom of nature. It is best for me. Next spring I hope to build here a little bungalow. I shall furnish it tastefully and cooly, and to the woman who cares to share this home with me, I shall make it a heaven of good-fellowship, happiness and peace.

Wrote to me, Zola, write something worth while. Tell me about your plans for the future. It was by a long time ago we met again in Los Angeles. But it is your turn next. And though we may be separated for some time to come, may our hearts retain their common ideal and unite in infinite love till you and I are reunited.

With every good wish to you.

WOULD DIVORCE BROTHER NO. 2.

She Married One in France; When He Was Killed She Wed Other Here.

Mrs. Julia Jausaud, who married in succession two brothers, one of whom was killed in France in 1914 while fighting the Germans, sued the other brother for divorce, alleging that he neglected her. At the death of her first husband, the French government gave Mrs. Jausaud $300 insurance and a ticket to America. She came here and joined her brother-in-law, Joseph Jausaud, whom she married. Yesterday she was in Judge Cralf's court seeking alimony.

ENOUGH SUGAR,

tion and will be forced to depend on other sources for supply. Brown & Bessell declare that the ordinary production of their factories is 1,500,000 sacks a season. This year, they claim, their production is less than half. Of the total amount, 80 per cent. is shipped to foreign points, and this year, besides furnishing their distant trade, they will have to sell 250,000 sacks to the government. They state that their factories have but a very small quantity on hand and that if it is not sold in small quantities there will be a famine during the winter months. They say that there is no need of anyone hoarding, the new crop will be in the first of the year and then there will be an abundance of sugar for the entire country.

PLENTY AFTER JANUARY.
While all brokers predicted an abundance after January, they said the price undoubtedly will be higher. Cuban sugar was quoted at 8.05 raw in New York last Monday. After it is refined it will bring 11.50 per pound for handling and for service. This would put it on the market at 13 to 14 cents to the consumer. All declared that the rumored price of 25 cents was absurd. Mr. Morgan stated that during the war the refiners were allowed a certain "spread" by the government for their manufacture. From their profits, which were set by the government, they paid 35 cents to the equalization board and this has gone into a fund to be used by the government to keep prices normal. On top of this, he says, the jobber was allowed a profit of 48 cents, which he never took. Mr. Morgan says that no jobber took more than 45 to 50 cents at any time. The refiner was permitted an additional $1.50 profit for handling and for service. While government regulation is off of beet sugar, the same general profits prevail, he says.

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY.
Speaking of the present crop and alleged shortage, C. A. Johnson, manager of the Holly Sugar Company, with plants at Huntington Beach and other Southern California points, said: "Up to ten days ago there was not a bag of sugar on the floor of our plant. As fast as it was manufactured it was sent to the market. We would have a quantity on hand today but for the fact that the local market has used 88 per cent. since August this year than it did in the entire five months at the end of last year. There is no shortage in production at the present time, but the demand is so much greater than the supply that there is not nearly enough to go around. If supply and demand was regulating the market, local people would be paying 14 cents for their sugar and would be glad to get it at that price."

tion and will be forced to depend on other sources for supply. Brown & Bessell declare that the ordinary production of their factories is 1,500,000 sacks a season. This year, they claim, their production is less than half. Of the total amount, 80 per cent. is shipped to foreign points, and this year, besides furnishing their distant trade, they will have to sell 250,000 sacks to the government. They state that their factories have but a very small quantity on hand and that if it is not sold in small quantities there will be a famine during the winter months. They say that there is no need of anyone hoarding, the new crop will be in the first of the year and then there will be an abundance of sugar for the entire country.

PLENTY AFTER JANUARY.
While all brokers predicted an abundance after January, they said the price undoubtedly will be higher. Cuban sugar was quoted at 8.05 raw in New York last Monday. After it is refined it will bring 11.50 per pound for handling and for service. This would put it on the market at 13 to 14 cents to the consumer. All declared that the rumored price of 25 cents was absurd. Mr. Morgan stated that during the war the refiners were allowed a certain "spread" by the government for their manufacture. From their profits, which were set by the government, they paid 35 cents to the equalization board and this has gone into a fund to be used by the government to keep prices normal. On top of this, he says, the jobber was allowed a profit of 48 cents, which he never took. Mr. Morgan says that no jobber took more than 45 to 50 cents at any time. The refiner was permitted an additional $1.50 profit for handling and for service. While government regulation is off of beet sugar, the same general profits prevail, he says.

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY.
Speaking of the present crop and alleged shortage, C. A. Johnson, manager of the Holly Sugar Company, with plants at Huntington Beach and other Southern California points, said: "Up to ten days ago there was not a bag of sugar on the floor of our plant. As fast as it was manufactured it was sent to the market. We would have a quantity on hand today but for the fact that the local market has used 88 per cent. since August this year than it did in the entire five months at the end of last year. There is no shortage in production at the present time, but the demand is so much greater than the supply that there is not nearly enough to go around. If supply and demand was regulating the market, local people would be paying 14 cents for their sugar and would be glad to get it at that price."

Regular Habits Produce a Beautiful Complexion

Daily elimination rids the system of poisons.
Women should realize that!

MANY women complain daily of their complexion, of their head-aches and general ill health, little realizing that the trouble is constipation. Women, too, are much more subject to such complaints than men, and much more careless of it. The result is more in health, every eye is so, and, simply constipation, in fact, but, and, and in that word so often used, "indigestion."

At the first sign of these symptoms the wise woman will take a laxative, and will see that the young girl and woman in her care do likewise. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite with thousands of women because it is mild and gentle in its action and it ends the constipation and bowel troubles to do their work naturally without the aid of medicine.

TRIO WILL FACE MURDER CHARGE

Spokane Suspects Decide not to Fight Court Ruling.

Judge Indicates McDonalds
will Have to Go Back.

Verbally Holds Extradition Papers for Them Legal.

Attorney John Richardson, counsel for Jewell McDonald, Ted McDonald and Mrs. Fay Wilkinson, held here for the murder of William McNutt, Spokane capitalist, announced last night that, in view of Judge Craig's ruling yesterday that the trio must return to face trial, no further attempt will be made to fight extradition. The two women will be ready to go today, he said, or at any time after Judge Craig formally hands down his decision denying their appeal for a writ of habeas corpus.

Though Judge Craig did not actually rule on the legality of the extradition papers issued for the two women and the brother, the latter of whom is under arrest at Fresno, a verbal opinion was given and the decision will be entered in the court minutes today or tomorrow.

In indicating what the decision would be, the court stated that the reason he took more than a week on the case was because he was interested in the cases cited by the defense attorney and was impressed by the argument on behalf of the women.

The court held that the Spokane prosecuting attorney could not possibly have stated in the petition for extradition, as asserted, that he personally knew that the two women were in Spokane at the time of the crime, nor could he have followed them around and sworn, except on "information and belief," as to what they did.

But the court stated that the official asserted that the women were there and came to Los Angeles, and that the other facts recited in the petition were sufficient to assume the women were in Spokane on June 23, the date of the murder.

It happened yesterday. Cleopatra climbed to the top of a telegraph pole and hung by her tail from a wire. Hamlet stole sixteen week-old eggs from a setting hen and threw them at a policeman. Venus tried to vamp the same cop and chased him for a block. Salome scampered up on a clothesline and shook up the shingles in a neighbor woman's wash.

Anthony and Apple drove several women into hysterics and then climbed into a tree and pelted rocks at them.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home. You can dry clean, brighten and renew children's coats, suits, caps, woolsens, Swiss, lawn, organza and chiffon dresses, kid gloves, shoes, furs, waists, draperies, rugs—everything that would be ruined by soap and water.

Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a diaphan or wash boiler, put in the things to be cleaned, then wash them with Solvite Soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new.

Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. No pressing needed. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning. A package of Solvite soap with directions for home dry cleaning costs but a few cents at any drug, grocery or department store. Dry clean out of doors or away from flame.—Advertisement.

DEFENDS SWEETHEART HELD AS AUTO THIEF.

LOS ANGELES GIRL WILL GO TO KANSAS CITY TO AID YOUTH'S DEFENSE.

Defending her sweetheart, Miss Eva White, who has been living at 809 South Flower street, spent last night with her grandmother in this city, and prepared to start today for Kansas City to be near to Paul Watson, who is in jail, charged with being an auto thief. His two companions were killed when the machine, which the three men were charged with having stolen, failed to take a curve, jumped an embankment and turned a complete somersault. While in a jail near Kansas City following the accident, Watson wrenched two heavy bars from the bed and concealed them in the bedclothes, but they were discovered. When Watson, who was slightly injured in the accident, was searched, a fifteen-page letter from Miss White, dated at Los Angeles, was found.

Miss White said she was packing up preparatory to returning east yesterday. "If Otto (Watson) did anything wrong it was to get money to come to me. We were going to be married as soon as he got home, and I told him I would save my money and send it to him so that he could come, but I guess he could not wait. He will be 17 years of age on December 4."

Miss White said she met Watson two years ago at Fort Smith, Ark. Three months ago she came to Los Angeles, as her grandmother and a brother and sister live here.

The Kansas City police say that Watson was recently in jail at Pottaw, Okla., and was released the latter part of August. After going to Kansas City he and the two men who were killed went to the suburb of Pleasant Hill and, it is charged, stole a Buick car. While evading pursuit the car was wrecked in the letter from Miss White found on Watson she urged him to get some money to come to California, but she said, "Please don't steal it."

AGAINST STREET NOISES.

C. A. Holbrook sent to the City Council yesterday a communication in which he asked that action be taken to eliminate unnecessary and irritating noises on the public streets.

Councilman Malheur championed the proposal, declaring there was "much food for thought" in the Holbrook statements, but no definite plan was proposed. The communication was filed for future reference.

Bishop Cantwell was accompanied by Rev. Father Donahue, of Sacred Heart Church, and Rev. Father Fuhr, of St. Michael's Church. The latter was formerly a Death Valley missionary. At Death Valley Junction, their first stopping point, the party will be met by the Rev. Father Fleming, of Bishop, who will accompany them to Ryan, where Bishop Cantwell will lecture tonight.

Tonight the party will stay at Furnace Creek ranch. Friday will be spent in Barstow and the bishop will lecture there in the evening. Saturday there will be confirmation in Barstow, and in the evening a lecture will be given at Randburg. Sunday mass will
